South Bend, Ind., Feb. 16-The rioting that occurred Sunday when the sheriff attempted to install Rev. Gruaeza as pastor of St. Casimir's Polish Roman Catholic church may lead to the arrest of two hundred and fifty persons on a charge of contempt of court, as the lives of the police around the church Sunday were threatened by the mob. Aroused by the activity of the sheriff and a squadron of police, complying with a court order, in assisting Rev. Stanislaus Gruza to take charge of the St. Casimier's Polish Roman Catholic church, 2,000 parishioners attacked the officers on Sunday.

Trouble Over Priest. The riot was provoked by the attempt of Sheriff Edward Swanson to carry out the order of Judge Funk of the circuit court to place Rev. Stanislaus Gruza in charge of St. Casimir's church. It was the culmination of troubles of a year. Early in 1913 the priest in charge of the parish was transferred by the order of Holy at Notre Dame, and Father Gruza was assigned to succeed him. The parish, consisting of 560 families, refused to accept him and barred his entrance to the church. When the church authorities refused to yield the matter was taken up with Bishop Alerding of Fort Wayne. On his refusal to interfere attorneys were sent to Washington to confer with the papal delegate. Meantime the church has been without a priest.

Find Children at Worship. After Sheriff Swanson, Deputy Sheriff Fred Gamble and Father Gruza drove up to the church in a taxicab, the sheriff tried to open the church door. This was a signal for the ringing of the bell, the church being filled with children of the parish. Immediately, from all directions a mob gath-

FEBRUARY 16 1914

ON "MAIN STREET, U. S. A."

A good many thousand automobiles will go through Dixon on their way to the exposition in San Francisco and returning in 1915. The travel during any summer is great, and with the Lincoln highway the improveed national boulevard that it will be, the normal traffic will be greatly increased. Dixon can be made as inviting a place for the tired tourist to rest as any along the route and in fact there are many things about this city and vicinity that would induce travelers to stop, if we will emphasize them so they will know it.

One good thing to do would be the placing of signs at intervals of fifty or seventy-five miles both east and west on the Lincoln highway, giving the distance to DIXON. This would show strangers who might otherwise stop at nearer towns, that by keeping on the road a shor while longer they could get to a city where they could enjoy every comfort and pleasure.

The most important work before the boosters of this county is the building of permanent roads to put our "link" in the Lincoln highway.

Do we realize that Dixon is on "Main Street, U. S. A.?" We have a reputation to live up to now. There will be plenty of competition between the cities on the highway and if we are going to be in the race at all, it behooves us to "Get Going" and not be left at the post. This is as prosperous, wealthy and resourceful a community as any and there is no reason why we should not have a place of honor in the front ranks of those who make the Lincoln highway possible. If we don't do it right we will be shown up pretty badly by comparison.

THE GROUCHY TELEPHONE PEST.

Did you ever answer your 'phone, give your name or number, and have some crusty party on the other end of the line nearly crack your ear drum when he or she slammed up the receiver in a rage because central had given the wrong number? Didn't you pray fervently for the intervention of Almighty Justice? Why the innocent, unoffending fellow who answers the ring of his own telephone, as he surely is expected to do, should have his head knocked off because some love-sick telephone girl was too busy to attend to her work is beyond us, and we believe there is something unpleasant going to happen to the uncouth boor who is so lacking in courtesy and discrimination as to be rude to an unoffending stranger. In this same category should be placed the fellow who says, "Hello, is Bill there?" and after you say no and go on to explain in your nicest manner that you will be glad to have Bill call him when he comes in if he'll give you his number, he hangs up with a clatter that deafens you, without having the decency to say good-bye and give you a chance to get the receiver away from your ear. If a person has a mean dispositon it will show itself quicker on the telephone than any place else and the telephone crank is about as irritating a fellow as can be imagined. Courtesy don't cost much and it won't lose you any friends.

We are proud of our neighbor above (in more ways than one, and we are frank to admit it) and to the right of us. Walt Mason is entertaining Dixon and surrounding vicinity for many miles nightly with his sage and philosophically humorous little discourses on a variety of subjects. The Telegraph has received many complimentary and congratulatory messages from its subscribers on Walt Mason and we feel that he is a valuable additon to our paper. AND MANY STATES

Charles Webb Murphy, baseball czar, Chicago, seems to cause the fans as much anxiety as our thick-skinned friend, Huerta, does the Mexican rebels. Neither of these sports seem easily dethroned. You can't help but sort of admire the man, no matter how much of a brigand he may be, who is strong enough to get the upper hold and nerve enough to keep it against the surging, howling rabble.

Spring approaches rapidly and will be upon us before we know it, but the garbage question is still unsettled. This garbage business is anything but a savory subject to be harping on, but it is vitally important.

DIXON WATER CO. FARM FACTS AND THEORIES

institution. It may be conveniently constructed in a cattle hurdle with rollers at the side so that the frisky lamb does not hurt itself during ingress and egress.

THE BEST method of drying off a cow is to feed her on dry food, and reduce the milking periods to once daily. Smearing the udder with tar is an old-fashioned method. Others used to bleed the cow, and give a dose of one pound Epsom salts. Fortunately nature herself most frequently determines the length of the milk of the milking period. A cow begins to go stale, and good farmers do not consider it profitable to have cows that breed regularly

WHEN the cow is frisky with the tail at milking it is a good plan to tie it to the leg. Modern hygiene has no faith in a whisked tail during milking. It disturbs the loose hairs, and shakes the dust off the coat into the milk pail.

ACCORDING to Wolff, the food standard for milch cows of 1,000 pounds live weight is 24 pounds dry matter, of which 2:5 pounds is protein, 12.5 pounds carbonhydrates, and four per cent. fat. This is equal to an albuminoid ratio of 1:5.38. THE LONGHORN is good for both the butchers and milk-production where quality is a main consideration. It is a good butter-making breed, and the best may be depended upon to produce from 14 to 18 pounds a week.

Remarkable Surgical Feat. A remarkable operation has been performed in a hospital at Prague by Doctor Horak on a girl of sixteen, named Marie Hubacek. She was suffering from a diseased bone in her have the arm amputated. Doctor Horak, however, decided to replace the diseased part of the bone by a corrasponding part taken from a dead person immediately after death. For this purpose he utilized a girl who died in hospital from a bullet wound in the temple. The dead girl's right arm was amputated and part of it used to replace the diseased portion which had been removed from the girl Hubacek's arm. The operation was so successful that now Hubacek uses her right arm as well as before her illness.

SYNOPSIS.

Kirk Anthony, son of a rich man, with again passionately. College friends, gets into a fracas in a New York resort. A detective is hurt. Jefferson Locke insinuates himself into the college men's party.

Locke, aided by Kirk's friend Higgins, who thinks it a joke, drugs Kirk and puts him aboard a ship bound for Colon. Kirk is on the passenger list as Locke.

"Broke" and without baggage, aboard the ship Kirk makes the acquaintance of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Cortlandt.

Kirk's father repudiates him, and Weeks casts him out as an impostor. Kirk meets Allan, a Jamaican negro canal worker out The two are arrested by Colon police for helping to put out a fire.

With terrific force the door was fairly jerked from its hinges and slammed to behind them. The next moment Allan's big body was leaning against it, as if the wall were about to fall inward upon him. Runnels leaped forward with an exclamation; his wife stood staring, her face as white as snow. With them was the genial gray haired judge from Colon, whom Kirk had met at the Wayfarers' club on the night of his arrival. "You made it!" Runnels cried triumphantly.

"Miss Garavel!" his wife echoed. "Thank heaven you came!" "Quick, the music will stop! Judge,

The banker acknowledged the words ceremoniously. "Love is a thing that comes and goes. Marriage alone can bind it. Some day you will thank me. and then perhaps you will honor our house again, eh?"

"I shall be happy to come whenever you wish." As he walked away the banker said, with relief:

"He takes it well. He is proud-almost like a Spaniard."

Kirk moved through the crowd as if in a trance, but he was beginning to realize the truth now. It surged over him in great waves of gladness. He longed to shout his news aloud. What luck was his! The world was made for him. There was no such thing as adversity or failure-Chiquita was his wife! All Christendom might go to pot for all he cared.

In the midst of his rhapsody he heard a bellboy speaking his name and smiled at aim vacantly as he turned away. But the negro followed him persistently, saying something about a

The Country's Finest In the big cities and the small towns, in the great busy factories and out in the open, everywhere you'll find thousands of healthy, contented men smoking famous old PATTERSON'S SEAL Cut Plug tobacco.

It's the same rich, sweet, pleasing PATTERSON'S SEAL their fathers and grandfathers smoked, and they get the same healthful satisfaction out of it all year 'round. PATTERSON'S SEAL is the kind of tobacco you can smoke all day long, to your heart's content.

Cut Plug Burley

PATTERSON'S SEAL is ripe, mellow Kentucky Burley, aged up to three years to bring out the wonderful Burley richness, mildness and sweetness. Then made into a Cut Plug so the fragrance goes all through it and it burns evenly in your pipe.

Just give PATTERSON'S SEAL a week's trial and you'll always smoke it. Sold everywhere in 10c pouches.

> Aged Solon Succumbs After an Illness of Many Weeks-Public Funeral Tuesday.

Washington, Feb. 16.-Senator Augustus O. Bacon of Georgia, President Wilson's right hand in the legislative branch of the government, particularly in shaping the foreign affairs of the nation, died suddenly in a hospital in consequence of a blood clot in the He was the first United States senator elected by direct vote of the people under the seventeenth constitutional amendment.

Though Senator Bacon had been seriously ill with kidney trouble and out sale, 4 miles southeast of Dixon. complications developing from a broken rib, his death was unexpected. It came suddenly at two o'clock in the afternoon. The immediate cause was diagnosed as a blood clot in the heart. Mr. Bacon's death was a shock to his colleagues. Arrangements were made for a public funeral to be held in the senate chamber next Tuesday afternoon, to be attended by the senate and house of representatives, the the Supreme court, members of the diplomatic corps, the admiral of the navy and chief of staff of the army.

This committee, together with a committee from the house of representatives, will accompany the body of the late senator to Georgia Tuesday night.

In the death of Senator Bacon President Wilson loses one of his chief advisers on foreign affairs. Mr. Wilson, on learning the news, said:

"My association with Mr. Bacon has been of the most cordial and, to me, helpful sort. I particularly profited sale. C. P. Plumley, Auct.

by his experience in foreign affairs." The successor to Senator Bacon as chairman of the foreign relations committee probably will be Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, ranking Democrat on the committee.

You are perhaps in doubt which it shall be. Won't you let us help you to decide. At our store you have the advantage of hearing them both side by side. Have you ever thought what a great advantage that is? Well, if you cannot decide by that method we would be glad to place one of each in your home. Please allow us to do this. Call and make your arrangement.

Two New Things in the Pickle Line in Bottles Are Out This Week.

One is an Onion Salad which has proved to be a great repeater wherever is has been tested out thoroughly. It is put up in about a 12 ounce bottle [gearly a pint] and sells for 10c.

The other is a cucumber pickle mixed with onion and is put up in pure Olive oil. Owing to the high price of pure oil it is put up in a smaller package than the salad and retails for 15c per bottle.

We would like to have you try these goods and let us know if they are worthy of a regular place on our shelf. This is the only way we have of knowing what new things to keep, put it up for the public's decision.
